—John and Charlie Markt were in Creighton, Mo., this week, looking after business interests.

—Thomas Knoles has just returned from Chicago, where he went with a train load of cattle, for W. A. S. Derr.

—Robert Walters was a very sick man for a few hours, Wednesday morning of this week. He is now all right again.

—Miss Ollie Haines, of Skidmore, and her niece, Edna Gray, of Maryville, who have been enjoying a visit with George Allen and family, returned home, Tuesday.

—Claud Lemon and Mrs. H. Williams, of the Fairview district, have been entertaining their sister, Mrs. Clark and her husband, of St. Joseph, during the past fortnight.

—The New Point Modern Woodmen did a most generous act last week by going to the hay field of their brother, Wm. Bragg, who has been very sick with typhoid fever, and putting up his hay for him.

—Judge Lieber, who spent Sunday with Judge Craig at Kansas City, on his return Tuesday, reported the Judge as still steadily improving. He is gaining in flesh and strength, and his physician informs Judge Lieber that if he maintains his present rate of progress, he will be strong enough to resume his work in a reasonable length of time.—Nodaway Democrat.

—Monday night while Sam Sells was walking into town from the east he was attacked by a dog that exhibited signs of hydrophobia. He kicked the animal off repeatedly, and as often it would charge again. Mr. Sells backed off until he reached Walter McCallon's hitch rack, which he seized, and by holding to it was able to use his foot to the best advantage without danger of falling. Finally a well directed kick turned the rabid animal completely around, with its head in the opposite direction, when it ran away paying no further attention to Mr. Sells. It ran to Gillmore's farm and entered into a fight with Mr. Gillmore's dog. In the meantime Frank Dysart and Austin Duffey secured guns and started after the dog, arriving at Mr. Gillmore's while the fight was still in progress. Mr. Dysart shot the mad dog, also, at Mr. Gillmore's request, one of his dogs. The other will be kept tied until all danger of hydrophobia has passed. The mad dog belonged to H. Elliott, and had been running amuck since Sunday. It is quite probable that several head of stock and many dogs were bitten and signs of the terrible disease will be watched with much anxiety.—Fillmore Lever, July 23, 1903.

—George Colvin, of Maitland, is here renewing old friendships.

—W. T. York and wife, of Mound City, spent Sunday with relatives in this city.

Miss Fawn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Evans, is here on a visit with aunts, uncles, cousins and grandma.

—Jacob Rayhill, of Hickory township, will leave this week for Santa Monica, Cal., where he will make an extended visit with a sister and other relatives.

—A. J. Lipp, who has been carrying the mail on rural route No. 1 from Forest City, got tired of his job and resigned, and Geo. W. Lease was given the appointment.

—E. Sauer, who has been in St. Joseph the past three months, under treatment for the eye, has returned, and while he had the cataract successfully removed, he feels it has not benefitted the sight.

—A camp meeting will be held at Forest City, Mo., commencing, Friday, August 7, 1903, and continuing until Monday, August 17. The services will be held in Mr. Ford's grove and will be conducted by J. M. Harrington. Everybody welcome.

—Mound City's Harvest Carnival will be held August 11-13. They are arranging for engagements for a daily balloon ascension, acrobats, Ferris wheel, Slide for Life, Gipsy Camp, Animal show, Band Drills, etc. The committees are at work and are trying to make it the best they ever had.

—Geo. W. Colvin, Wednesday, traded his hotel property on Second street to B. F. Bundy for the latter's residence on North Second street, north of Walnut. Mr. Bundy will remove his restaurant and confectionery business to the building as soon as the front part of it can be put in proper shape. Howard Chambers managed the deal.—Maitland Herald.

—The St. Joseph papers seem jubilant over the prospects of Lake Country being made a permanent camp for the National Guard of the State. Unless the conduct and general behavior of the militia is improved upon over that of 1903, the sympathy of the people of the state should go out to the people of St. Joseph—especially should it be extended to the wives and daughters and mothers of that city.

—James Plummer, a nephew of James Scott, of this city, died in Michigan, not far from Chicago, his home, on Monday, July 27th, 1903. He was well known in our city, having lived here and attended our high school. His many friends here will feel grieved to hear of his death. He was a most exemplary young man, and leaves a widow and a large circle of relatives and friends to mourn his death. Mrs. James Scott, of this city, and his brother, Ben, of Forest City, went to Chicago to attend the funeral, which was held Thursday, 30th inst.

—Mrs. Bertha Markt's horse became frightened in Forest City, Wednesday of this week, July 29, and succeeded in breaking loose from the hitching post to which it was attached, the result being that the horse ran into the fence at the church near the bridge and broke its leg, necessitating the killing of the horse. Before striking the fence the horse ran into a buggy and horse driven by Willie Gailbraith, smashing one of the wheels to splinters. Bont Vandever and daughter, Mrs. A. W. Seeman, had a close call and only the activity of their horse, in getting out of the way, saved them, perhaps, from serious injury.

—Dr. Simmons tells us that there is a new baby girl at the home of Chris Imboden.

—Mrs. John Young, of Port Arthur, Tex., is here visiting relatives and friends.

—T. C. Dungan made a shipment of two car loads of cattle to St. Joseph, Monday.

—A. H. Greene and sons will begin the burning of a 200,000 kiln of brick in a few days.

—Mrs. Anna Tyler and her two daughters, of Fort Collins, Colo., are guests at the home of Albert Roecker, who is an uncle of Mrs. Tyler.

—Miss Mae Wenger, of Warrensburg, Mo., and Rev. S. Breithaupt and family, of Mound City, Mo., visited at the home of Rev. and Mrs. H. E. Bower, this week.

—Lon Anderson plead guilty before Esquire Rostock, July 25th, to disturbing the peace of Elton Whitmarsh, at New Point, and was fined $1 and costs.

—Tom Kyger has bought a new baler and on Wednesday he baled 350 bales of hay. It is the best machine for the purpose on the market, and "Tommy" is on deck to bale your hay.

—Earl Book and George Preston were trying to put each other in the water at Bigelow during the flood and a fight resulted in which Book "licked" Preston. He came before Esquire Glass at Bigelow on the 28th inst., and plead guilty to assault, and paid a fine of $3.00 and costs.

—Mr. and Mrs. Grant Morgan entertained a number of young people at their home in this city, Wednesday evening, July 29, 1903, in honor of their son, Clyde. Games of all kinds were indulged in, and at a late hour refreshments of ice cream and cake were served. All present enjoyed themselves to their heart's content.

—The ministers of Oregon met Monday morning and organized a ministerial association, Rev. Brock, of the M. E. church, president, and Rev. Bowers, of the Evangelical church, secretary. It was decided to hold a mass temperance meeting, Sunday evening, August 9, in the M. E. church, in which meeting all the churches will participate.

—The people of Mound City are jubilant over the announcement that Circuit Attorney Joseph W. Folk, of St. Louis, has accepted an invitation to make an address there August 12, the second day of the harvest carnival. His talk will be on "Civic Pride or Good Government." Inasmuch as Mr. Folk has at present accepted invitations to visit only five towns in the state, Mound City being the only one in Northwest Missouri, great credit is due the carnival management in securing him. As it is the custom of the harvest carnival to charge no admission, this condition was easily met. There will no doubt be an immense crowd present to hear the noted prosecutor. The Burlington railway has granted the carnival association a rate of one and one-third fares for the round trip within a radius of 75 miles for all three days. An excursion train will also meet the Omaha flyer and Tarkio Valley trains at Bigelow, Aug. 11 and 12, so that good connections are assured. The Hon. John G. Wooley has also been secured for an address, which will be given on the third day.

ELECTRICITY BUILDING.

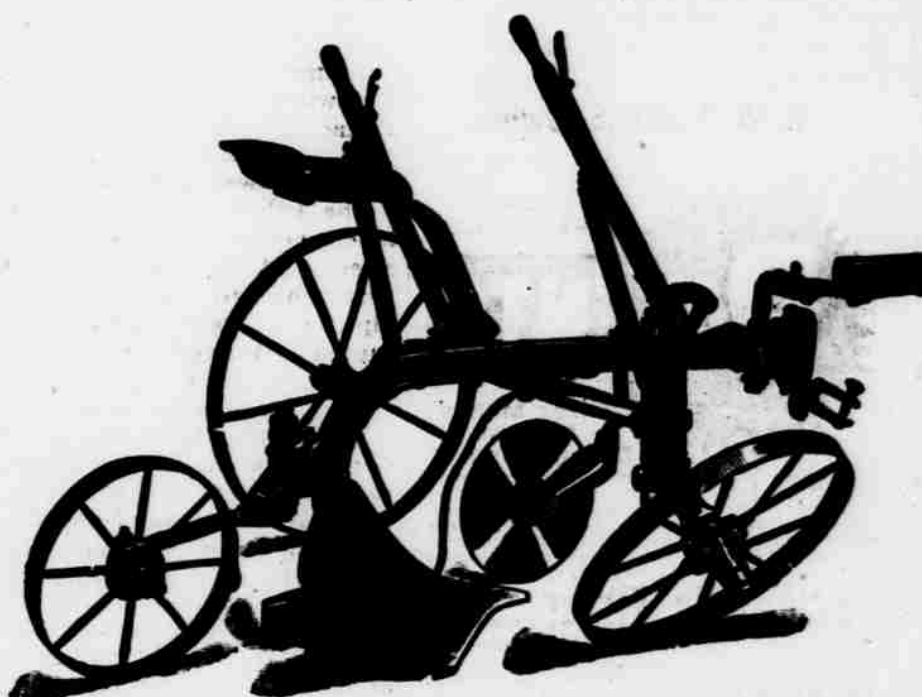

The Electricity Building was erected by the William Goldie Sons Company, the contract price being $399,940. The structure was planned by Walker & Kimball, of Boston and Omaha, who were chief architects of the Omaha Exposition. It is located on the main central avenue and forms one of the leading elements of the main exposition picture. It has a frontage of 650 feet toward the north and 525 feet toward the east, facing the main lagoon.

The design is a bold columned treatment of the corinthian order. The columns are carried well down toward the ground, to give height to the facade. The facades will be well accentuated by elevated pediments and tower effects over the four main entrances and at the corners. Over the accentuated places, as well as over the twin columns, which form a pleasing variation of the treatment of the facades, opportunity for ample sculptural decoration is supplied.

The fenestration is bold and appropriate, giving ample light and substantial wall treatment. On two sides of the building are loggias which add pleasing effects of light and shadow. There are numerous openings on the facades, such as exhibitors always seek in selecting their exhibit space. The plan of the building is simple and well treated, showing an effort to supply as much exhibit space as is possible with the 292,000 square feet of floor space. The exhibit space is compact and symmetrical. An extensive balcony sweeps around four sides of the building, supplying 160,000 square feet of additional space.

A tremendous traveling crane, to be used in the installation of the big electrical machinery, which is to be shown in the building, will run on tracks in the western bay. Two big toilet rooms are to be located in the court of the building. The doors of the building are of gigantic dimensions, 11 by 18 feet. The structure has 176 trusses, the largest span being 82 feet in length. 185 tons of iron and steel were used.

The Tyfold Collar

The picture shows how the collar is cut out on each side to allow for adjusting a neck tie without springing the collar open. The collar comes close together in front, it keeps the tie in place and you don't see the cut-out part. Besides the tie is retained just over the button, which is also kept out of sight. Your summer comfort will be increased if you wear one, and you'll thank us for the style. Dealers sell them.

Missouri Day at the World's Fair.

At the next monthly meeting of the Missouri World's Fair Commission in St. Louis, on August 5, a date will be determined upon for the "Missouri Day at the World's Fair." The chief requisites for such a day are two-fold: First, it should be the anniversary of some great event in history of the state; and, secondly, a day when all Missouri men young and old, rich and poor, may lay aside the daily duties and mingle in reunion and fellowship around the State's building, within the State's metropolis. With these considerations in view, a number of dates suggest themselves. The first legislature was held in Missouri upon the 11th of June, 1803; the State Constitution was adopted on July 19th, 1820; and the first election held for governor in Missouri was on August 28th, 1820, when Alexander McNair was elected. The anniversary of each of these have meritorious claims for distinction. But the date which seems to appeal most strongly to consideration is the 33rd anniversary of the State's admission into the Union August 10, 1821. Who can suggest better days?

Whatever day the commission appoints, it will be characterized by a regular old-time Missouri reunion picnic.
